

Biographical Information Robert Michael Siracusa

Robert Michael Siracusa was born in Boston, Massachusetts. In 1983 he began sculpting with Vince Ricci Studio and at the SMFA in Boston and in 1986 was accepted as a full-time student at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts where he continued his studies of the figure and stone sculpture. He also attended The Carving Studio in Vermont perfecting his skills. He later attended a workshop in Carrara, Italy and in 1997 returned to continue stone carving.

In 1992 he moved to Northern Arizona where he exhibited his stone and bronze sculptures. He has been represented at numerous art galleries throughout the United States.

Along with sculpting, he has created numerous special effects (SFX) concept character designs and has worked as an SFX film production makeup artist.